

ROSE MAID FINALISTS—One of these girls will reign as "Maiden of Roses" for the formal opening of the Park of Roses May 30. Front row, left to right, are Charlene McNair, Ruthann Limotta, Nancy Blanchard, and Dorothy Corfee; back row, left to right, are Carol Newhouse, Barbara Harder, and Louise Winzenreid. The winner's name will be revealed May 29 on the "Teens and Twenties" program on WBNS-TV.—Journal Photo.

Pick 7 Girls For Finalists In Rose Title

SEVEN Columbus area high school girls were selected Wednesday night to be finalists in the "Maiden of Roses" contest of the "Teens and Twenties" WBNS-TV youth program.

One will be given the title honor May 29, with the remaining six to comprise her court.

★ ★ ★

SELECTED IN A rose-bedecked room at the Neil House for special honor upon the opening of the Park of Roses May 30, were:

Charlene McNair, 772 City Park Ave., representing St. Mary High School; Ruthann Limotta, 775 W. Broad St., Central; Nancy Blanchard, 2616 Drake Rd., Mifflin; Dorothy Corfee, 1276 Smith Rd., Hamilton Township; Carol Newhouse, 2898 Maryland Ave., Bexley; Barbara Harder, 1617 Barrington Rd., Upper Arlington, and Louise Winzenreid, 87 W. Tompkins St., North.

★ ★ ★

JUDGES WERE Kenneth E. Keller, director of music education, the Columbus Public Schools; Roman V. Eyerman, Diocesan School Board; Jack E. Brown, County School Board, and Mrs. Irwin Jones and Mrs. Carl R. Brial, of the Columbus Rose Club and the Park of Roses.

The seven finalists will appear and the winner's name be revealed May 29 on the "Teens and Twenties" program, of which Glenna Hunter, editor of The Ohio State Journal Youth Page, is mistress of ceremonies.

Announcement will be made later of the prize award selected for the winner.